

LCG Celebrates 40th Anniversary

May 21, 2013 - Atlanta, GA – LCG Associates, Inc., a national investment consulting firm headquartered in Atlanta, marks its 40th anniversary of providing independent investment advice on May 21st.

“Celebrating this significant milestone reminds us that we could not have done it without our clients,” said Edward F. Johnson, LCG’s President and Chief Executive Officer. “We are proud to have helped our clients navigate challenging markets from the 70’s and into the new century.”

Incorporated as a defined benefit consulting firm in anticipation of the Employee Retirement Income Securities Act (“ERISA”), LCG’s client base has expanded over time to provide investment consulting services to endowments, foundations, 401(k) plans, family offices, nuclear decommissioning trusts, and other funds. In addition to working with a diversified client base in a non-discretionary capacity, LCG now offers implemented consulting services.

“One of the keys to LCG’s success is our people. Our Senior Consultants have been with LCG on average for 21 years. This creates a stable environment where our colleagues can focus on helping clients with their portfolios,” said Johnson. “We continue to focus on three key areas – performance, client service, and research – to ensure LCG’s future is stronger than ever.”
