

LCG Expands ODD, Reporting Departments

September 14, 2016 - Atlanta, GA - LCG Associates, Inc., a national investment consulting firm, hired Cynthia K. Dempsey, CFA, CPA and Christine Wizzard as Manager of Operational Due Diligence and Manager of Client Performance & Reporting, respectively. Both are based out of the Atlanta office.

“Cynthia and Christine’s experience and industry knowledge have already made solid contributions to our clients and the firm. Their addition to LCG illustrates our commitment to being an industry leader with a high-caliber team,” said Ed Johnson, President and CEO.

Dempsey and Wizzard have 23 and 20 years of industry experience, respectively.

Dempsey’s responsibilities include conducting initial and on-going operational due diligence on alternative investment managers to analyze, review, and monitor fund operational processes and risk. Before joining LCG, Dempsey worked in a variety of roles from Investor Relations to Portfolio Specialist to Investment Consultant in the financial services industry.

Wizzard’s responsibilities are oversight of the daily operations of the Client Performance and Reporting Department, which includes a team of Performance and Database Analysts. Previously, Wizzard held a range of positions from Senior Reporting Analyst to Operations Manager to Senior Fund Accountant in the investment industry.

Dempsey is a CFA charterholder and is a member of the CFA Society of Atlanta. She is also a Certified Public Accountant (“CPA”). Dempsey graduated with a B.S. in Accounting from the University of Alabama, where she was a Presidential Scholar.

Wizzard holds a Master of Science with a Concentration in Accounting from Long Island University and a B.B.A. in Finance/Accounting from Baruch University.
