

LCG Hires Stewart to Lead DC Practice

September 18, 2014 - Atlanta, GA - LCG Associates, Inc., a national investment consulting firm headquartered in Atlanta, hired Frederick A. Stewart as a Senior Vice President. His responsibilities include serving as the Firm's Defined Contribution Practice Leader. Stewart also conducts capital market and asset class research as well as investment manager due diligence. He is based out of the Atlanta office.

"Fred brings a wealth of experience in the DC marketplace and will be a great resource for the Firm," said Edward F. Johnson, President and CEO.

Stewart has 25 years of experience. Prior to joining LCG, he was a Managing Director for the Southeast Region at Portfolio Evaluations, Inc. Stewart was responsible for starting and growing the firm's Atlanta office. Before that, he was Vice President of the Institutional Consulting Group with UBS and a member of the Defined Contribution Advisory Board. Stewart has also worked in many diverse organizations, namely the mutual fund, insurance, and banking industries.

He graduated from Eastern Kentucky University with a B.S. in Industrial Psychology and a minor in Business. Stewart has also been awarded the Certified Employee Benefit Specialist (CEBS) professional designation.
