

LCG Celebrates 45th Anniversary

May 21, 2018 - Atlanta, GA – LCG Associates, Inc., a national investment consulting firm, marks its 45th anniversary of providing independent investment advice on May 21st.

“In 45 years of business, we have remained focused on being a trusted partner and serving as an ‘extension of Staff’ for our clients,” said Edward F. Johnson, LCG’s President and Chief Executive Officer. “Given the myriad of challenges organizations face today, the increasing amount of responsibility, and the growing complexity of global investments, having an independent investment consultant is more important than ever to act as the client’s advocate and serve in their best interest.”

Incorporated as a defined benefit consulting firm in anticipation of the Employee Retirement Income Securities Act (“ERISA”), LCG’s client base has expanded over time to provide investment consulting services to endowments, foundations, defined contribution plans, family offices, nuclear decommissioning trusts, and other funds. In addition to working with a diversified client base in a non-discretionary capacity, LCG also offers implemented consulting services.

“I’m incredibly proud of the team we’ve built. Our Senior Analysts have been with LCG on average for 18 years. Having a stable environment fosters an unwavering focus on providing our clients with customized solutions and advice,” said Johnson. “Three key areas – performance, client service, and research – will continue to ensure LCG’s future is stronger than ever.”
